

COLLEGE FUNDING PROJECT MENU OF SERVICES

Paying for College Presentation: Get in the Game!

This workshop provides an overview of the many options available to families to pay for college. The goal is to inform students and parents about government grants, scholarships, loans, FAFSA application procedures and additional services and programs provided by $tand by Me. Time: 30-60 minutes (depends on audience and presentation).

Scholarship Presentation: Scoring Big with Scholarships

This workshop explores scholarship opportunities from the federal and state governments as well as from institutions, private organizations and online sources. The goal is to inform students and parents about scholarship opportunities and the application process. Time: 45-60 minutes.

FAFSA Walkthrough Presentation: Know the Game Plan

This presentation will provide step-by-step instructions for completing the FAFSA, with actual screenshots from the FAFSA website. The goal is to familiarize students and their families with the FAFSA. This is not a "hands-on" FAFSA completion event. Time: 30-60 minutes.

FAFSA Completion Workshop: Just Do It!

This is a "hands-on" workshop that will provide students and their families with actual, real-time assistance in completing the FAFSA. $tand By Me staff and trained volunteers will provide one-on-one advice. Time: Varies from 20 minutes to 2 hours.

College Enrollment Support: Seal the College Deal

This is a mentoring program that targets students, especially first generation, who require additional help after college acceptance. Students work with a mentor to explore decision making, deadlines and requirements needed to end up on a college campus. The goal is to avoid the "Summer Melt," which can prevent students from transitioning to college because of missed deadlines and requirements.

Paying for College-For Juniors: Spring Training

This is an overview of options for paying for college (see above). The goal is to make students and their parents aware of financial aid as they approach their senior year. Time: 45 minutes.

Decision-Making 101: Go for the Win

This presentation helps students and parents understand college offers and make informed decisions regarding college acceptance. Time: 45-60 minutes.
